

Alabama Aquarium

at the Dauphin Island Sea Lab

The Alabama Aquarium introduces the beauty and wonders of Alabama Coastal Waters to our visitors. From the mysterious swamps of the Delta to the busy port of Mobile Bay, to the hurricane-swept sands of the Barrier Islands and the sparkling depths of the Gulf of Mexico, the Aquarium is a journey of breathtaking splendor and cutting-edge science.

ALABAMA AQUARIUM

The official aquarium of Alabama

at the Dauphin Island Sea Lab

The Alabama Aquarium at the Dauphin Island Sea Lab, formerly named the Estuarium, is an exciting educational venue highlighting the four key habitats of coastal Alabama: the Mobile Tensaw River Delta, Mobile Bay, the Barrier Islands, and the Northern Gulf of Mexico.

To Get Here:

From I-10, take Exit 17A to Dauphin Island. Once on the Island, turn left at the water tower; the aquarium is 2 miles on the left.

From Fort Morgan, ride the Mobile Bay Ferry. The aquarium is a short walk or drive east, on the left, across the street from Historic Fort Gaines.

Parking is free.
